Manual of Anti Ragging Cell

Pushpanjali College of Education has a Zero Tolerance Policy towards ragging.

The Supreme Court, in its judgement dated 08 May 2009 ordered the implementation of a ragging prevention programme comprising, inter alia, setting up a toll-free anti-ragging helpline/ call center, a database of institutions/ students, and engaging an independent non-government agency as the monitoring agency.

The UGC Anti Ragging Information Guide lists the following punishments for those indulging in ragging of any kind.

- Any student or group of students found guilty of ragging on campus or off campus shall be liable to one or more of the following punishments:
 - Debarring from appearing in any sessional test/ university examination or withholding results
 - Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges
 - Withdrawing scholarships and other benefits
 - Suspension from the college for a period of one month
 - Cancellation of admission
 - Debarring from representing the institution in any national or international meet, tournament, youth festival, etc
 - Suspension/expulsion from the hostel
 - Rustication from the institution for periods varying from 1 to 4 semesters or equivalent period
 - Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution
 - Fine up to twenty-five thousand rupees
 - Imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees or with both
 - Collective punishment - When the students committing or abetting the crime of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment as a deterrent to ensure community pressure on the potential ragers.
